TASTING NOTES

Intense notes of ripe fruit and grapefruit. Mineral aromas, with peach and apricot skin. Very rich in the mouth, resulting from a long ageing period in barrels in contact with fine lees. It will gain a lot from bottle ageing.

VINIFICATION

Produced from grapes hand picked in Alto Alentejo. Some varieties ferment with skin contact, after the pressing, the must was transferred to vats or barrels (40%) new and of the 1st year. After a prolonged fermentation with recourse to chilling and without inoculation (natural), the wine was kept on its fine lees for 7 months.

PAIRING

Scallops, sea bass, prawns scampi style, Cornish chicken.
